

CHAP. 189. veral turnpike roads through Baltimore county and for other purposes, and shall be governed by the same regulations, and be subject to the same fines, penalties and restrictions, as the said companies now are, where the same are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

Privilege to creditors of former company

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That on the first day, at the time and place appointed by the aforesaid company, for the opening of books for subscription to the capital stock of the said company, the stockholders and creditors of the late turnpike company, incorporated by an act of the General Assembly, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirteen, chapter one hundred and seventy three, and which company has since been dissolved and their charter forfeited by the judgment of Frederick county court, shall have, if they shall so determine, the exclusive privilege of subscribing to, and becoming stockholders in the company hereby incorporated, to the amount or one half of its capital stock, upon the same terms and conditions, as are herein prescribed to any other person or persons who may become stockholders under the provisions of this act.

CHAPTER 189.

Passed Mar. 12, 1835 A supplement to an act, entitled, an act directing the manner of suing out attachments in this Province, and limiting the extent of them.

Attachments authorized

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from henceforth, any person or persons having obtained a judgment in any court of this State, against any person or persons, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said plaintiff or plaintiffs, in the said judgment, instead of any other execution, to take out an attachment against the lands, tenements, goods, chattels, and credits, of the said defendant or defendants, in the said judgment, in the said plaintiff or plaintiff's own hands, or in the hands of any other person or persons whomsoever; whether the said defendant or defendants reside in the county in which the said judgment may have been rendered, or elsewhere, which said attachment shall be directed to, and served by the sheriff or coroner, as the case may require, of the county in which they are issued, and the same proceedings shall be thereupon had and observed, as are now authorised and required by

And may be laid

Without regard to residence